Re:

Formally Requesting Extension of Time:

1. I NOTE: Due to excessive Penal Federal Institution lock downs. Defendant is only allowed certain time allotted situations - which he has no control over. Requests more time to have access to Law library - when his confinement pertains to no access to practice due process rights.

Because of the constant lock downs where he is confined to a cell for 14 days of solitary.

2. Defendant also seeks more time to file 2255 motion suggests the relevant triggering date may be determined under § 2255 (f) (2) because he was kept in solitary.

3. Defendant presents request more time to file 2255 as to not construed the language his 28 U.S.C. § 2255 will illustrate and be presented as to SHOW CAUSE under the fact Defendant is under Layman's Law and in pro se. So Court can see Defendant 2255 is to SHOW CAUSE and his limitations will be granted to file, more time is granted and that Court can see § 2255 motion is not untimely under § 2255 (f).

Respectfully Submitted
